evening was spent in music and singing, after which supper was served.

Miss B. Messick gave an informal reception at her residence, No. 3142 Franklin avenue, in honor of Miss Cammie Bruce of Liberty, Mo. Among those present were:

Misses—

James. Pasdey,
Martin, Rask,
Baldwin, Harris,
Messieurs—
M. Maythew, P. Hale
T. Simpson, T. Rader,

The Ceiumbia Seciety saye a three days' suting at Burkeville, iil. The most important feature of the outing was a visit to the wonderful Mammoth Cave, Those present were:

Misses

Tillie Knehmer, Vernon Werner, Marie Murreit, May Owens.

Vernon Werner, May Owens,

D. Rothehild

LeRoy Martin, Bud Rucks.

SOME FORE -CASTS FOR THE COMING SOCIAL PEASON -

early May, or begin to buy our fall gar-ments and select new hangings for the reception hall.

But we are as yet few and far between. The old St. Louisan who knows his climate does not venture this side the Mississippi until late in the month. Early September is usually very doggy as to days and very stuffy as to nights. Whether this is to be an exception remains to be seen. Some one predicted an early autumn, in my hearing a few nights ago, because, said this prophet, the summer has been so admirably according to schedule; that is, very hot weather in July, which is the mouth for it, and cool nights in August, which is also

Then we are almost certain to have a snappy, cold winter, in order to equalize the summer's torridity.

And that brings me to social signs of the Coming setson.

You can just note it down in your deribboned calendar which you have brought back from Mackinac, all done in birch-bark; or from Manitou, with Indian beading; or from Atlantic City, with Japanese trimming, that the coming show will be be a reaction. And then just glance at the provocation, so to speak.

The biggest bunch of buds to bloom in many a long year.

The largest number of autumn brides scheduled for at least five seasons.

The greatest quantity of prospective visitors, due to our glorious Fair, which is now assuming definite and tangible propor-tions, which St. Louis has ever known. What more can one ask, as a forerunner of coming gayety?

Our prospects for a sesson of unprecedented liveliness are more than auspicious. They have assumed the appearance of absolute facts.

We are going to be gay, you may rest assured of that.

The summer, by far the sprightliest for many years, has set the pace. There will be much doing when November gets here. I hear rumors that Mrs. James Lawrence

I hear rumors that Mrs. James Lawrence Blair, who has been up at Mackinac all summer at her cottage, intends to take a house in town this season, and to do the entertaining stunt right royally. She knows how, that is certain. And she will have the prerogative this winter as never before. It won't do us a bit of barm to circle round the grain practical over by one one good, big calon, presided over by onbig-hearted and generous matron, whose broadmindedness is a by-word among her friends, and whose suitability for the position of leader is so generally acknowledged.

St. Louis needs a leader badly enough. Mrs. Don Morrison has retired. Mrs. Pierre Chouteau never cared for the position, and Chouteau never cared for the position, and has besides been in mourning much for the last two seasons. Mrs. David R. Francis dislikes entertaining and prefers the quietude of her own household. Mrs. William H. Thornburgh, who made an admirable and charming leader two seasons ago, will not be out of black for at least another year, and the dosen Vandeventer place women of wealth, with a few from Westmoreland and Portland, keep strictly to their own little circle and wouldn't be drawn out of it—I mean so far as any general entertaining goes—for all the king's horses and all the king's men.

They don't want to lead and they don't want to be led, either. Their own little want to be led, either. Their round of luncheons, dinners and ed larks out at the Country Club suf-

They think, by the way, that Mrs. Blair is stark, staring mad.

Bhe told me so once. They have all of She told me so once. They have all of them known her since her youth, and every now and again they attempt a feeble expostulation when she throws wide open the doors of Stancote to the public-school children of Kirkwood, or gets a crowd of working girls out on the rose-decked terraces to hear a good band play and to have a fine afternoon. They think her music ambition and her patronage of artists, hig and little, are the rankest bohemianium that ever rearred its head in conservative old St. Louis, and they wouldn't emulation mobile example for twice their annual incomes.

I am wondering just what some of these conservative matrons, whose art galleries are never viewed by the poor, and whose drawing-room carpets are never soiled by the footprints of the hot polloi, are going to do when 1986 gets round and their East-ern relatives and Nova Scotia cousins, to say nothing of a few forty-niners from Cal-ifornia, descend on them and insist on be-Ing entertained.

Tou see, their husbands, by being mixed up with business brought on by the World's Fair, are bound to be subjected to just such influxes of people, desirable and otherwise.

I have a mental picture of what the most haughty West End matron whom I know, who never by any chance gives anybody a lift in that luxurious victoria of hers when she drives about in solitary state on pleasant mornings in the spring and fall, is going to do about it. Will she, think you, gentle reader—will she unfur! her carriage parasol alongside the country cousins, or will they be sent to drive with the coachman in the closed brougham? Won't it be funny to observe?

man in the closed brougham? Won't it be funny to observe? Everybody has undesirable relatives. And everybody will be, in the language of the small boy, "up against it" in two short years.

Let's watch and see how many of the "upper classes" fall in line and do the thing gracefully.

Did you ever see such dried-up lawns and parched-looking flower beda as those out Webster and Kirkwood way these late summer days? Positively, the city is in much better condition, for we have had the benefit of sprinkling carts all summer, while the poor old suburbs have just parched up and almost blown away.

Water has been a scarce article ever since the drought set in. Nearly every claters went dry long ago, and a bath is a positive luxury. The Duthell Cabannes tell me that their daily water bill had been $3.50 since middle July. Really, 'its far cheaper to go away from home.

That dry wit, Mr. Selser, who is familiarly known as "Pete," came ambling across the Dean lawn in Webster a few afternoons ago, when the Smith girls were down from Vincennes for Helen Kaufman's weddins. He stopped to chat a moment, when out came likes Dean, swathed in a big brown gingham agrom and wearing a worried look.

"What's up, Miss Hattie?" inquired Mr. Selser. "Who so disturbed this charming afternoon? Fill bet I know!" slapping his pide as a sudden thought struck him. "Tou've been measuring the water for your guests' bath, and you find that there isn't enough to go round!"

Bdith Franciscus's engagement to Al Nicholls cannot be said to have surprised society very much, since the two have been inseparable for twelve months past. We are all somewhat disappointed that the wedding, which is announced to follow upsedily—september 5 being the data—is to be so very quiet. Miss Franciscus is so well known and has such a large acquaintance and calling list that really a big church wedding, or, at least, a house lastivity of some size, was almost to be reported. But she has chosen to be married early quietly, with only her Fidus Achates, the Aby Watzon, close at hand, while from Bedgers will see that the bridgerous seedings the ring at the proper time.

The premiative britismaid, I chareve, is

A few of us are back from the summer's a ring bears special significance. Her enputing, because perforce we must get the children into school, or evict the people who have had our house, furnished, since hinted at early last spring, though vigorof the Westmoreiana place in the Westmoreiana place in the westmoreiana prints though vigorous denial, I believe, resulted from each of the "interested parties." As the young man is still "steady" in his attentions, we may infer, may we not?

"All this everlasting talk about men not giving their seats to women in street cars makes me weary, very weary," declared a young Benedict the other day, whose manners are as fine as his Southern ancestry would indicate.

"The shoe is quite on the other foot, I can full your and more times than one can tell you; and more times than one can count I ride up in the Olive car night after night and invariably effer my seat to any woman who may be standing near me in the aisle. Ten to one she will gaze far over my shoulder, and say haughtily:

"I don't care to sit down. Keep your seat, sir.' And she doesn't sit, either. Now, tell me, what's a fellow to do? And can anybody measure how foolish and generally disgusted he feels? No wonder men don't give up their seats, when they're likely as not to get turned down for of fering them."

"Did I ever tell you the Pathetic Story of the Little White Vest," said my attorbey acquaintance, who has a fund of humor and a knack of graphic description. "No? Well, a many years ago, when I was young and struggling, I boarded out on Pine street in what was then at tale." on Pine street, in what was then a tolerably fushionable neighborhood, with several other young lawyers in the same house. We were all building up a practice; but I had arrived poor and unknown in St. Louis. and for many a twelvementh my struggles to make both ends meet would take too long to tell.

"Henry T. Kent, Ashley Cabell and Ton McPheeters were among my household friends, but they all were pretty well fixed in this world's goods, and it wasn't such uphill work with them. We met nightly round our good landlady's bountiful board and the conversation rolled on briskly. The other fellows went about quite a bit in society, but I was far too poor to keep their gait. As time went on I finally made a few pleasant friends and occasionally accepted invitations, but always modest ones, and those that did not call for especial quiter in the metter of either which was and those that did not call for especial outlay in the matter of clothes, which was a licklish point with me then.

"I managed, with diligent care, to keep myself supplied with fairly respectable-looking garments and to see that they were pressed and cleaned often; but many suits I certainly did not have, and the most that I could do in the way of gay attire was to sport one little white pique vest. "It fitted well and always looked exceedingly neat and nice when freshly ceedingly neat and nice when freshly laundered by the corner Chinaman, and with the exercise of considerable diplomacy I flattered myself that nobody among my friends ever suspected that it was the only waite vest which I owned. "The other fellows-Kent, McPheeters

"The other fellows-Kent, McPheeters and the rest-had a dozen or so each season, and wore them frequently, but such extravangance was not for me. I would wear my vest for two or three days, and then change to the dark vest which matched my suit of clothes, fondly horing in the meantime that no one would notice the disappearance of the white plane, which, of course, would be then in the hands of the Chinaman.

"One morning it turned cool and I put on my dark cloth waistcoat, carefully ty-on my dark cloth waistcoat, carefully ty-ing up the white vest in a neat parcel and planning to drop it at the laundry as I ent downtown to my office

"I turned the corner and was about to slide into the Chinaman's place of busi-ness, when, alas and alack! who should ness, when, aims and alack! who should suddenly burst upon my view but young Lawyer Kent, accompanied by. Tom Mc-Pheeters. They were laughing merrily and caught sight of me in a moment. "Helio! Here's Blank, said Mr. Kent. Why, Blank'-glancing at the fatal paper parcel under my arm-are you going to put that white vest of yours in the is undry?"

"Judge of my distress. And I had fancled

Juge of my distress. And I had fancied that no one knew. I tried to make some gny rejoinder that would not let the others know how deeply the shot struck home, but my effort was a pitiful one. Then boldly lifting up my head I marched straight into the laundryman's without another word, "The lively young lawyers went rollicking on that way. But I nave hed the converse. on their way. But I never had the courage to wear that little white vest again." SERENA LAMB.

WEDDINGS. Fine diamonds. Mermod & Jaccard's.

The marriage of Miss Ida Culver, daughter of the late H. H. Culver, and Doctor Samuel Preston Wintermute of San Francisco, Cal., will take place to-morrow evening at the residence of the bride's mother, No. 3501 Morgan street.

No. 3501 Morgan street.

Miss Sophia Schoil, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schoil of North St. Louis, was married last Tuesday afternoon to Mr. Edward H. Brock by the Reverend Baltser of Friedens Church. Miss Lillie Brock acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Jacob Bcholl as groomsman. In the evening a reception was given at the bride's home to the relaives of both parties.

The bride wore a white French lawn, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, while the bridesmaid was dressed in pink mousseline carrying a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Brock will be at home after October 1 at 2500A Florissant avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton W. Lucke of Morrison avenue, have sent out cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Katherine Marguerite, to Mr. Theodore Rankin Foster of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Ballman of No. 282 Harper street announce the approaching marriage of their daughter. Lottle, to Mr. Rossell Richmond of Hollywood, Miss. The marriage will take place Thursday, September 19.

A quiet wedding, which took place at St. Ann's Church on Wednesday, September 4, at 8 o'clock, was that of Miss T. Agnes Clark to Doctor John W. Devereux. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Joseph Collins, a cousin of the bride-groom. The attendants were Miss Alyce Clark and Mr. James Devereux.

Doctor and Mrs. Devereux will be at home on Mondays at No. 4279 Finney avenue.

At 9 o'clock Wednesday evening, September 4, the marriage of Gilbert C. Allan of No. 231 South Twelfth street and Miss Frances A. McIntyre of No. 271 South Jefferson avenue was solemnized at Marvin Methodist Church at Twelfth and Sidney streets. The Reverend Clarence Burton was the officiating clergyman. Just before the ceremony Miss Emma Beell sang "Oh. Promise Me." Mr. Frank A. Kinkel played "The Bridal Chotus," from "Lohengrin," as the bridal party entered, and Mendelssohn's wedding march as they left the church. They were preceded up the alsie by Miss Elsie Mo-Intyre and Miss Winifred Allan, sisters of the contracting parties, who served as ushers.

the contracting parties, who served as ushers.

The bride was gowned in white Paris muslin, made with quantities of white satin ribbons, tucks and lace. She carried a bouquet of white bride's roses.

Miss Virginia A. Cochran attended her as maid of honor. Miss Cochran wore castor silk and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mr. Allan was attended by his brother, Rupert Allan, as best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at Mrs. Mary Allan's, mother of the bridgeroom, where the couple received the congratulations of their friends before departing for their new home at No. 325 Salena street.

HISCELLANEOUS ENTERTAINMENTS. Birthday rings, Mermod & Jaccard's.

Miss Tillie Kushner of Columbia, Ill., was surprised by her many friends, both of St. Louis and Columbia, the occasion heigher herthday. The housest great ways for Cityee Battler, Mrs. Camba Marcall. served on the lawn of the Kuehner resi-

Mrs. Luther McGilvray of Oregon avenue entertained friends on Thursday with a luncheon. Among those present were: Mesdames— Etta B. Orton of Kirkwood, Mo. Charles P. Waite, Misses— W. M. Grigsby of Fayette, Mo. Bess Waite, Effie McGilvray, Emily Dagwell.

Miss Ruth Brockmann, daughter of Mr. Miss Ruth Brockmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Brockmann, of No. 1608 Penrose street, gave a lawn party to her little friends, the occasion being her sixth birthday. The grounds were decorated with Japanese lanterns. Music and a variety of games made the evening enjoyable to all.

Among those present were:

Misses—
Ruth Brockmann, Grand State of Mrs. Misses—
Ruth Brockmann, Gladys Meyers.
Ruth Pennell.
Gladys Meyers.
Hortense Tredway, Pearl Kellermann, Esther Partenbeimer,

Ada Bieger.
Blanche McCollough,

heimer, Venola Haverport, Blanche Haverport, George Patterson, Irving Guywn, John Meyers, Willie Nolte, Ruth Pennell, Alma Mayland, Pearl Kellermann, Ada Bieger, Blanche McCollough, Maud McCollough, Elsie Roetger, Percy Partenheimer, Willie Berger, Henry Obrock, Freddie Schwindle, Edgar Partenbelmer, Elmer Baman.

Mr. and Mrs. William Geitz of the South

Mr. and Mrs. William Geitz of the South Side chaperoned a jolly party of young people to Creve Cocur Lake last week. The day was spent in sailing and boating.
The guests were:
Messieurs and Mesdames—
H. Frese,
W. Geitz.
Misses—
E. Leire.
Messieurs—
E. Leire.
Messieurs—
E. Keickers,
C. Jones.
H. Johnson.

Miss Mary Smashey gave a trolley party Thursday evening to Lucas Grove in honor of her friend, Miss Mand Stillian of Louisi-ana, Mo. A special car was chartered for the occasion, and the evening was pleas-antly spent, dancing being the principal diversion.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Bloebaum and Mr. and Mrs. George Landwehr acted as chaperones.

The party consisted of Misses Minnie Del-ger, Della and Whiz Reichert, Alvena Koe-ster, Florence Bloebaum, Mary Smashey,

A surprise party was given to Miss Rose
D. L. Streck at her residence on Bacon street Friday evening by the members of the Hartville Shakespeare Club, of which Miss Streck is a member. Daucing, music and a variety of games were the order of the evening.
Among those present were:
Misses—
Sudiac Covela.
Florence F. Pichard. Florence E. Richard-Sadie C. Doyle, EllenM. Sweeney Clara Wulff, Marguerite Prendi-ville. Irene Kern, Florence Harig. Rore D. L. Streck. Messieurs-Leslie G. Hodgins, E. Price Porter, Henry Streck, Arthur Reinermann, Frank Farnham. Hubert Davidson Henry C. James.

Marie Murrell A. Thurman, Messieurs

Oliver Becker, W. Dierkes, Wm. Rothebild,

A box party was given last night at the Columbia Theater in honor of Mr. Ernest Tucker of Mohile, who is the guest of Miss Belding, No. 583 Julian avenue. The party consisted of Misses Kathrine Weldon, Jennie Belding and Sarah Jennings, and the Mossrs. Joe Jenkins, Ernest Tucker and George W. Jenkins.

A jolly party of young folks, chaperoned by Mr. F. Hite and Mrs. J. Vogel, enjoyed a day's outing at Forest Park on Satur-Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Horwitz of No. 4625 Cook avenue, who have been visiting the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo and Marquette, Mich., are now at Petoskey, Mich, where they will remain until Septem-ber 15.

DEEDA JOHNSON, FOUR-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. W. R. JOHNSON OF NO. 4112 NORTH ELEVENTH STREET.

Tillie Feuerstein and Annie Keily of St.
Charles, Laura Gertrude and Lela Craven of St. Louis, Katherine McCue of Indianapolis, Ind.; Mraes. Dickburn and Richards of Belleville; Messrs. Francis Rogers, Steve Lawier. Arthur Bloebaum. Leo Elsenstein, Hampton Adams. Gert Chrismer, De Witt Pourle, Herman Koester, Luther Armstrong, Carl Burns, Jack Miller, Alex. Ross.
F. E. Kenny, Clem West, Charles Poettgen, E. Prince, E. Carr, Wm. Patrick and Carl Mulgardt of St. Louis.

day in honor of Miss Vogel's birthday. Some of the party were:
MissesGertle Atkinson,
May Ile Beard,
May Atkinson,
Elsie Hite.
May Blong,
Theresa Stritter,
MessleursJohn Blong,
Georgo Vogel,
Charlie Hite,
Lymann Beecher,
Leon Dunn.

Mrs. Frank Groom of Washington avenue gave a dance Monday evening, in honor of the Misses Edith and Edna Simpson of Topeks.

Some of those present:
Misses—
A. Haiston,
M. M. E. Simpson, J. Shouse, A. Riley. Maxie,

Messieurs and Mesdames-W. W. Betts.

Miss Grace Chamberlain entertained a party of friends Tuesday evening at hel home on the North Side. The evening war spent with music, vocal and instrumental and in games. Among those present were:

Misses— Dolly Herman, Badie Friel, Alice Howarth, Louise Hilligass, Grace Chamberlain. Messieurs— Grace Chamberlain, Fred Howarth, Roy Crume,

The annual dance of the Louisiana Club will be given at Trimps Hall, No. 1412 North Grand avenue, Friday evening, Sep-tember 20. The committee in charge of the arrangements will include Messrs, G. Bath-gate, K. E. Posten, John J. Weller and John J. Brooks.

Miss Lottie Bailman of Harper street en-tertained a number of her girl friends Sat-urday afternoon with a euchre party. Prizes were won by Misses Lu Cochrane, Edith Hardy, Lu Boing and Ada Lasher. Thosa present were: Misses—dith Hardy. Ciara Daials, Bettie Parker, Emma Weynacht, Rose Wiabel, Lulu Cochrane, Ada Lasher. Bertha Conrad, Dora Sutter, Leona McKee, Mabel O'Brien, Tode Kealty,
Mis

A river outing was taken last Wednesday on the City of Providence by a joily party of ladies. Stop was made at Montesano, whereby Mr. Owen Blanchard took the ladies for a hay ride over to Kimmswick, Mo., where supper was served and muste and dancing finished up the programme. Those in the party were:

Mesdomes—Charles Wissmuth, Morris Tiernan, Cornelius Mahoney, Peter Roderner, George Zollmann, Gus Stocke, M. Hilbig.

John Sharkey,

Cornelius Mahoney, George Zollmann, Gus Stocke, John Sharkey, Edna Stocke. Virgie Mahoney. Mable Wissmuth, Norma Stocke.

John Sharkey, Jr., John Mahoney, One of the entertainments of the week was the luncheon given by Mrs. Cornelius Mahoney of No. 2214 Mullamphy street in honor of Mrs. Thomas Dun of Chicago, who is visiting her brother-in-law, Father Dun.

Those present were.

Messleurs and Mesds
Phil Heyer,

Ed Caimer,

John Wolf,

M. Wettmore, M. Turner, Will Barr, James Butler, ids May Heye: Adalaide Turner of New York, Katheryn Morissy.

May Blong,
Theresa Stritter,
Messleurs—
John Blong,
Georgo Vogel,
Charlie Hite,
Lymann Beecher,
John Dunn,

James Blong. Hugh Thompson, Ade Beecher, Leon Dunn.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mermod & Jaccard's illustrated jewelry catalogue mailed free upon request. Mrs. B. F. Hummert and her son, Francis, have returned to the city, after a visit to her cousin, Mrs. J. B. Busch, at Washngton.

Misses Elizabeth and Nellie Hull left last week for Old Point Comfort, intending to take the ocean trip from there to Boston, returning via Buffalo. They will be gone until October 1. Miss Edna Earl Clement, who went East in June, will spend this month in Buffalo. Mr. Philip Steger departed a few days ago on an extended tour of the East. He will visit Dayton, Buffalo and New York. Miss Marie L. Clement of No. 3846 West-minster place, is spending a couple of weeks in Ste. Genevieve. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Storm and daughter. Mrs. George A. Mellon, and baby, and James A. Storm and Lloyd Storm, have returned to St. Louis from Petoskey, Mich.,

Doctor I. T. Reber, No. 2656 Keokuk street, and family are visiting friends near King's Lake, Missouri. John T. Kelly, No. 3329 Morgan street, re-urned last week from Parkersburg, W. Va., where he spent two weeks visiting friends. Pherson avenue, announces the engagement of his daughter, Mattie, to Mr. H. Harvey Harris of Hannibal, Mo. Miss Nellie Conlen has returned from a Washington avenue have returned from a two months' outing in Colorado.

Miss Lottle Klemm returned to Rye Beach to join her mother, Mrs. John Schroers, after a visit at Magnolia. Judge and Mrs. John A. Talty, No. 583 Bartmer avenue, returned last week after a six week's sojourn at Atlantic City and Asbury Park. They also spent a week vis-iting the exposition at Buffalo.

Mrs. H. S. Bohannon of No. 3133 Franklin avenue is enjoying a two weeks' visit with friends at Sedalia, Mo. Miss Ella Heapes of Page boulevard has eturned home from a visit to Mrs. Will shockey of Warrensberg, Mo. Miss Zeanle Karsau arrived in New York yesterday morning from Paris. During her solourn abroad she visited Paris, London and other fashion centers of Europe for the purpose of selecting the latest models for gowns, waists and other novelties for the dressmaking departments of Scruggs, Vandervoort & Barney Dry Goods Company.

Miss Ruth Lakenan of Mexico, Mo., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Will Shockey, of Warrensburg. Mrs. J. H. Shelly and daughter of Dallas Tex., are guests of friends at Hotel Beers

Doctor Fayette C. Ewing has returned Going to Buffalo Pan-American Exposi-tion? Get tickets via Big Four Route.

Doctor and Mrs. W. J. Burleigh and little daughter. May Rose, have returned home after a trip to Asbury Park and Brigantine Beach.

Mrs. W. M. Eckert of No. 735 Euclid avenue has departed on an extended trip to the Canadian cities. She will also visit London, Toronto and Buffalo before returning in November.

Mrs. B. M. Bolton of Washington, D. C., is a guest at Hotel Beers.

ST. CHARLES COUNTY FAIR.

The sixteenth annual St. Charles County Fair will be held on its beautiful grounds at St. Charles, Mo., beginning Wednesday. September 11, and ending Friday, September 12, 1891. Prospects are good for a large attendance from St. Charles and the adjoining counties, also from St. Louis. Excursion rates have been secured on all railroads, and the new electric line from Wellston to St. Charles now makes it convenient to make a pleasant trip to and from St. Charles at intervals of every half hour.

Besides the regular features and exhibits of a regular county fair, the management has secured as one of the special attractions California Frank's Wild West Show, which will give free exhibitions on the grounds every day of the fair. The officers of the association are: C. T. Mallinckrodt, president; D. J. Borgmeyer, vice president; A. R. Huning, treasurer; W. F. Achelpohl, secretary. The Misses Jennie Fearn and Mildred Curry have returned from a visit of two months at their mother's old home in Kentucky. Miss Ophelia Curry is still the guest of Miss Russell in Northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Joseph have taken apartments at Hotel Beers for the winter. Miss Katheryn Sullivan and Mrs. J. F. Bulin have just returned from a two weeks visit to Louisville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rinkel, accompanied by their little daughter, and Mrs. Hughes have returned from Okawville, Ill. Fine cut glass. Mermod & Jaccard's.

Doctor H. R. Hall of Cabanne has re-turned from a ten days' outing with the St. Louis colony at South Haven, Mich. Mr. Louis S. Lacroix has returned from his vacation, spent at Chicago and the Wis consin resorts.

Mrs. Ben Barnett and little daughter, Janaise, of No. 350 McPherson avenue, ar-rived home Thursday afternoon from a nine weeks stay in Minneapolis, Minn. Mrs. Joseph Bogy of Hotel Beers has re-turned from a visit of several weeks with her son in Denver, Colo.

Mrs. John H. Shelley and despiter of boulevard have just returned from Atlantic City, where they spent the summer.

KODAKS. DEVELOPING, SATS PRINTING,

Most accurate watches made. Mermod & Inccard's.

Mr. James A. Healy, accompanied by his mother and sister. Miss Anna, departed Friday night for Mackinac Island.

Colonel and Mrs. Vincent P. Marmaduke of Hotel Beers have returned home after a stay in Charlevoix, Mich.

Miss Tille and Miss Louise Pauli have re-turned from a trip to the Indian Territory.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pickel and family have returned home from the Buffalo Expo-sition and Atlantic Coast.

Miss Mary Harris of No. 5721 Olive street will return about the 20th of this month, after a trip to the East, visiting the expo-sition and Ithaca, N. Y.

Mrs. Frank Lonsdale, wife of the Rev-erend Frank Lonsdale, has returned from Colorado, where she has spent the summer with her family,

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Maroney, daughter and son have returned home, after two months' travel in the East,

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Lempertz have returned after an extended trip abroad,

Mrs. Adolph E. Moll and her two children, Berenice and Robert, have just returned rom a trip through Southwest Missouri, in-duding The Cedars, at Lebanon.

The Misses Katle and Mary Sullivan of Florissant avenue have returned from Charlevolx, Mich.

Tickets to New York and Boston via Big Four Route give ten days' stopover at Buffalo to see Pan-American Exposition.

Mrs. F. K. Jones and daughter. Miss Sadie Albertson, of No. 3660 Olive street, re-turned from the Pan-American Exposition last week.

Mrs. Daniel O'C. Tracy has returned from a six weeks' sojourn in Colorado and a visit to her sister, Mrs. E. K. Petera of Denver.

Miss Lillian Sutter, who has spent the past month in Atlantic City and Washing-ton, is now in Chicago visiting friends.

Mies Belle Devlin and party from St. Louis are at Emmet Beach Hotel, Harbot Springs, Mich.

Doctor Hanau W. Loeb has returned to the city after a four months' sojourn in Europe.

Mrs. J. H. Siegrist has returned home to Hotel Beers after spending the summer in New London, Mass.

Complete stock of ladles' watches, chains and rings. Mermod & Jaccard's, Broadway,

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Gormley and Mrs. James L. Glover have moved into their new home, No. 3306 Vista avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson of Mis-sissippi are spending a few weeks in the city and are at the Hotel Berlin.

Mrs. Sidina S. Grummon and her niece, Miss Edna M. Loring, have returned from a visit to Hot Springs, Ark.

Miss R. A. Goodale of Chicago is visiting St. Louis friends for a few days.

Mrs. Charles D. Merrem has returned home, after a trip through the Northeast.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rosenheim, who have spent the summer at Grand Haven, have re-turned, and are located at the Hotel Berlin.

Mrs. A. J. McCarty and Miss Clara E.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. True have returned from California, where they have been for some months, and are at the Hotel Berlin.

Miss Lulu Urie of Garfield avenue has re-turned from a visit to friends in Alton.

Fine leather goods, exquisite collection pocketbooks, card cases, etc. Mermod &

Big Four to Buffalo Pan-American Expo-sition. Best service, track and equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Yule of Morgan street left yesterday for a visit to St. Paul and the lakes.

Conclave and visited relatives.

where they spent a pleasant su

Mr. William Winetroub of No. 4067 Mc

Mrs. A. Fuller and children of No. 425

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Joseph have returned from Salt Lake City. They are at the Ho-tel Beers.

Miss Edyth L. Corby and Reno Beauvis

Mr. A. Kurtzeborn, Jr., having just re-turned from abroad, would be pleased to show his friends an elegant selection of new fall goods. A. Kurtzeborn & Sons, Jewelers, 310 North Sixth.

Professor Robert Nelson, the celebrated singing teacher, is permanently located at No. 3500 Bell avenue, city.

Mr. Boehm has severed his ten years' connection with the Bilberstein Ladies' Tail-oring Company and established the Boehm Ladies' Tailoring Co., 3408 Lindell.

CARLINVILLE, ILL.

Special Correspondence of The Sunday Republic, Carlinville, Ill., Sept. T.—Miss Alma Schule of Culro is the guest of Miss Lizzie Steinmeyer. Miss Stella Surman has returned from Mil-

Mrs. Jerome Connor of East Aurora, N. T., s the guest of Mrs. George Buker. Mrs. Thomas Binaker is home from Eminaker-Miss Energy Palmer bus returned from Chinada-thical Energy Connormal Control Connormal Connormal Connormal Connormal Control Connormal Control Connormal Control Connormal Control Con

608 OLIVE

Co the Music Buying Public

Musical Announcement Season 1901-1902

We have assumed charge of the south-western interests of the Oliver Ditson Co., Boston; G. Schirmer, New York; E. Schuberth & Co., New York; Theo. Presser, Philadelphia; Breitkopf & Härtel, Leipzig; Novello, Ewer & Co., London, and have such a complete line of their publications that we can furnish on demand, music which formerly had to be procured from Boston and New York with loss of time and at greater expense.

Our own issues have been carefully revised, graded and fingered by Mesars. E. R. Kroeger, E. V. McIntyre and A. C. Elmer, and these publications are now in the most approved form. The amalgamation of our interests with the houses enumerated above enables us to present catalogues and terms which cannot be rivalled west of New York.

NOW READY.

"Love's Way," by E. V. McIntyre, words by Wm. Schuyler. The best ballad seen for many seasons; quite the peer of such old favorites as Bartlett's "Dream," Tosti's "Serenade," and Nevin's "Rosary." You will want a copy, so send in your orders at once. Regular price, soc; our price, 25c.

THIEBES-STIERLIN MUSIC CO. THE PIANO AND MUSIC HOUSE OF ST. LOUIS # 1118 Olive Street #

OUR PATTERN DEPART

10 CENTS-Any Pattern-10 CENTS.

9-Child's Clock with No 2, 4, 6 and 8 years.

4, 6, 8 and 10 years.

II-Child's Empire Apren 2, 4, 6 and 8 years,

When ordering by mail be sure to give full name and address Also name, number and size of pattern desired. Call, or fill in blank below and mail, with 10 cents, to The Republic Pattern Department Republic Building, St. Louis, Mo.

No. 8229.	Child's Coat.	Price 10 cents.	Ageyears.
No. 8213.	Child's Coat.	Price 10 cents.	Ageyears.
No. 8281.	Girl's Dress.	Price 10 cents.	Ageyears,
No. 8271.	Child's Apron.	Price 10 cents,	Ageyeara	•
NAME	······		***************************************
ADDRI	ESS

gent will leave Chicago in a few days to join his regiment in Cube.

Mrs. G. R. Karau has returned from Appleton, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rinaker of Bestrice, Neb., are the guests of relatives.

Mrs. George Libby of Roodhouse is the guest of Miss Emma Valentine.

Miss Nelle Hyed of St. Paul, Minn., is visiting Judge and Mrs. T. L. Loomis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Burgdorff and Miss Marle Bayeson, have returned from Toledo, O.

Mrs. E. A. Bleuler is visiting in Valparaiso, Ind. Ind.

Mrs. W. E. P. Anderson entertained at a luncheon Thursday the following guests: Miss Kathryn Peebles. Miss Bessie McNeill, Doctor Josephine McNeill, Miss Mary Robertson and Miss Bertha Dorsey of Alton.

Mrs. E. H. Owens is visiting in Ohio.

$10.75 Cleveland and Return, Big Four, Sept. 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12,

STEEL STRIKE SITUATION. President Shaffer Refuses All

Propositions of Settlement.

Pittsburg, Sept. 7.—The Amalgamated Executive Board resumed its sessions this norning with a full attendance of the nembers. Previous to going into the con-erence-room, President Shaffer said there members. Previous to going into the conference-room, President Shaffer said there would be no settlement to-day. "The presceproposition that has been made to us," said he, "cannot be accepted, and I wish to add that the terms of the proposition are different from those published. The strike will be continued. We have just begun to fight, and while we expect some of our weak members to go to work, we have prepared ourselves for that."

NO CARDS-EVERYBODY WELCOME.

Rosenbeim's Millinery

EARLY FALL OPENING. MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY. Sept. 9. Sept. 10. Sept. 11.

Fine Exhibit of Street and Walking Effects aris, London and New York Patterns.

N. R.—Monday, with every purchase of a trimmed hat, a handsome such

We Show the Best $5.00 Het Values in the City.

ROSENHEIM'S MILLINERY. 515 LOCUST STREET.